

Hunters Point Naval Shipyard - Regional Administrator Briefing
Suggested Agenda – June 4, 2018, 1 pm, Big Pine Room

1. Introductions
 - a. Superfund Division
 - i. Technical: John Chesnutt (Section Manager), Lily Lee (Remedial Project Manager)
 - ii. Community Involvement: David Yogi (Section Manager), Jackie Lane (Community Involvement Coordinator)
 - b. Office of Regional Counsel: Thomas Butler (Section Manager), Brianna Fairbanks (Attorney)
 - c. Office of Public Affairs: Kelly Zito (Director), Michele Huitric (Press Officer)
2. Site Background
 - a. Cleanup - Radiation, metals, solvents, PCB's, pesticides, etc.
 - b. Redevelopment Plans – Over 10,000 homes, 10,000 jobs, R&D, parks
3. Tetra Tech EC Falsification and Data Quality Problems
 - a. Tetra Tech EC Inc. work included over $250 million radiological work on 300,000 cubic yards of soil, 28 miles of storm drains, 28 buildings
 - b. 2006 – Earliest data with observed concerns
 - c. 2012 – Navy discovery of data discrepancies and mismatched soil
 - d. 2013 -2014 – Internal investigation showed 5 more places needed cleanup
 - e. 2016 – NRC enforcement, whistleblowers NBC news, EPA/State/Navy halted transfers
 - f. 2017 – Navy/EPA data evaluation found widespread concerns, former workers filed NRC petition to revoke license
 - g. 2018 – Navy agreed to resample 100% of survey units, 2 former workers sentenced to jail
4. Current Residents of Parcel A
 - a. May, 2018 – Former workers allege concerns, Mayor Farrell and Congresswoman Pelosi call for testing
 - b. June, 2018 – California Department of Public Health (CDPH) evaluating potential testing
5. Next steps
 - a. June 14 - Response letter to Congresswoman Pelosi
 - b. June 15 – Navy draft Parcel G Workplan
 - c. July/August – Testing Parcel A